

Today's storytime theme was "Let's Play!" and we learned about the early literacy skill Letter Knowledge, which is knowing that letters are different from each other and they make different sounds. Have your child trace the upper and lower case letters on this page, then color the picture. The two of you can make the "b" sound and say words that begin with "b."

B b

ball