

Children are more likely to have print motivation when they are excited about the topic of the book. Have your child color these zoo animals. Talk about each one and ask your child which one in his or her favorite. Find a story or a non-fiction book about that animal and share the book with your child. (Ask a Library staff member to show you where to find a good book!)

Zoo Animal Cards

