New Feature: Article Finder

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the Mount Prospect Public Library's Research & Reference website. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://www.mpppl.org/research/index.html>. The website's header features the "RESEARCH & REFERENCE" logo and a search bar with a "Catalog" dropdown and a "Go" button. Below the header is a navigation menu with links for Home, Catalog, Books, Movies, & Music, Research & Reference, Events, Services, About Us, and South Branch. The main content area is titled "Home / Research & Reference" and features three prominent buttons: "Article Finder" (with the description "Search for journal, magazine, and encyclopedia articles"), "E-Journals" (with "Find online journals by title or subject"), and "Web Resources" (with "Browse All Library Web Resources by Subject"). To the right of these buttons is a banner for "Notes from the Reference Desk" with the text "current useful information", "relevant web links", and "government related information". Below the banner is a box for a "Tax Information guide for 2009" with a list of services: "Need in-depth research help? Make an appointment with a Reference Librarian.", "Need help with homework or a job search? Try Live Homework Help", "Need help after hours? Ask Away 24/7 Live Chat", and "Prefer email or phone? 847 590-4050". On the left side of the page, there is a sidebar with links such as "Adult Continuing Education", "Ask a Librarian", "Digital Past", "E-Nets Startup", "Notes from the Reference Desk", "Public Green", "Village Vibe", "Web Resources by Subject", and "Web Resources by Title". At the bottom of the sidebar is a logo for "MPPL Staff Online". The browser's status bar at the bottom shows "Done, but with errors on page." and the Windows taskbar at the very bottom displays the Start button, Google search, and several open applications including Internet Explorer, CLEAN Web Resources, and Microsoft PowerPoint. The system clock shows 2:25 PM.
