

Weather Warnings

In the event of tornado or severe weather warnings, Main Library patrons will be advised via public address announcements how to proceed in accordance with the Library's Emergency Response Plan (ERP).

In the event of severe weather warnings, South Branch Library patrons and staff will follow Center Guidelines.

As a result of the Library's participation in The Emergency Closing Center, information on weather-related closings can be heard on WGN Radio AM-720, WBBM Radio AM-780, and all local television stations. Weather-related closing information also is available at:

- 1-312-222-SNOW
- The websites of all local television stations
- www.EmergencyClosings.com
